

Culter Community Council Website Accessibility Statement

Accessibility

We have tried to make this website easy to use for all, but should you have any problems, please let us know and we will address your issues as soon as we can.

Text Size

To make text bigger: hold down the CONTROL (or Command) key on your keyboard and press the plus (+) key repeatedly until you are happy with the size of the text on the screen or use the scroll wheel on your mouse.

To make text smaller: hold down the CONTROL (or Command) key and press the minus (-) key repeatedly until you are happy with the size of the text on the screen or use the scroll wheel on your mouse.

For mobile devices: place your thumb and finger close together on the website content and move them further apart in order to make text bigger. Alternatively, move your finger and thumb closer together to make content smaller.

Accessing PDFs

Many documents on this website are provided as PDF (Portable Document Format) files. These can be opened on most devices without any special software being installed but you may find Adobe Reader is useful - this is free software which can be downloaded from Adobe's website.

Current versions of Adobe Reader have a built-in text to speech function which enables PDF documents to be read aloud. Visit the Adobe website for more details.

If you have trouble reading the PDFs on this website, you can use a tool such as DocsPal to convert the PDF to a more accessible file format.

My Computer My Way

For more information on changing the settings on your computer, browser, keyboard or mouse to make the web more accessible for you, visit the My Computer My Way page on the AbilityNet website: <https://mcmw.abilitynet.org.uk>

Translation

The main web browsers (Edge, Firefox, Safari and Chrome) all have language translation capabilities built in which allow you to view this website in many different languages. Please see the help facility in your own browser to find out how to do this.
